

SALOONS CLOSED UP EARLY.

Noticeable Result of Byrnes's Talk to the Captains.

Central Office Men Said to Be Looking for Violators of the Law.

One of the injunctions contained in the orders given out by Supt. Byrnes to the police captains of the several precincts, all of whom were summoned before him yesterday, was made manifest at 1 o'clock this morning, when all the saloons in the Tenderloin Precinct closed their doors.

The order had been transmitted to the saloon-keepers by policemen on their beats, and it was obeyed, ostensibly, in every instance excepting by places which had been licensed to keep open all night, if there are any such in the precinct.

Capt. Schmittberger delivered a long lecture to the 6 o'clock and midnight platoons, and it is said that among other things which he enjoined them to look out for was gambling houses or in the twentieth, and in fact all other precincts, the same edict as regards the closing of saloons was sent forth, but it was the more noticeable in the nineteenth and twentieth, because heretofore the saloons have done business at all hours of the day and night with but the smallest semblance of strictly enforced temperance, according to the Superintendent's orders, else the violation is discovered will be summarily called to account by the Superintendent, who has full power to act under a recent resolution of the Police Commissioners.

It is also said that Central Office detectives were scattered all over the city last night taking notes and making observations. This could not be except by Supt. Byrnes's directions. The object undoubtedly must have been to make observations for the benefit of the Superintendent as to how faithfully his orders were executed by the captains.

Supt. Byrnes refused to discuss the matter today or even affirm or deny whether the saloon and gambling-house order was to be of general application or what further instructions, if any, he gave the captains yesterday.

As a result of the police vigilance, only two excise arrests were made in the Tenderloin District last night. They were Edward Hall, of 81 Sixth avenue, and Joseph Rhein, bartender for Michael Mindon, of 500 Sixth avenue. There was no evidence produced in court to show that they were doing business after hours, and Justice McMahon discharged them.

HE REFUSES TO APOLOGIZE.

Therefore, Fuchs Wants Westerner Arrested for Assault.

A warrant was issued this morning by Justice McMahon in the Gates Avenue Police Court, Brooklyn, for the arrest of Gottfried Westerner, a prominent wine merchant of Williamsburg, and one of the leaders of the Arion Singing Society and Junior Order German society of the Eastern District.

The complaint is by Joseph Fuchs, of 7th Avenue, who says that on the 2nd of April Westerner and Fuchs were attending a meeting of the Arion Singing Society. They got into an argument, and Fuchs says Westerner, who was armed with a chair used as a club, Westerner has firmly refused to apologize, and consequently Fuchs has secured the warrant.

INSANE FROM SMALL-POX.

The People at Fordham Hospital Given a Scare.

New Cases of the Disease Discovered in the Fourth Ward.

An irrational man, about twenty-four years old, who, it is believed, lives somewhere in Westchester County, was removed from Fordham Hospital to North Brother Island this morning, suffering from small-pox.

He walked into the office of the hospital yesterday afternoon, and said he wanted the "scar" removed from his face, motioning with his finger at eruptions too thick to be counted. It was discovered that he had small-pox, and when it was so announced, there was a stampede of clerks, outdoor patients and attendants.

The patient talked incoherently, being unable to tell anything about himself. He was evidently insane, probably from the effects of the disease. Where he came from is a mystery, but it was surmised that he might be one of the discharged patients from the Charity Hospital on Ward's Island, who had become infected there, and who had developed the disease after leaving that institution.

The Health Inspectors had hoped that they had succeeded in stamping out the infection in the Fourth Ward, but their hopes met with disappointment yesterday afternoon, when two cases were found. The victims were Annie and Lillian Burke, of 35 Oak street, aged twenty-seven years and three months, respectively. They were removed to North Brother Island this morning.

The whole block in which they lived was searched for other patients last night and this morning, but no cases were discovered.

Shooter Kenny Arrested.

Joseph Kenny, a saloon-keeper, of 103 Waverly avenue, Brooklyn, was arrested this morning charged with shooting Edward Petty, of 51 First place. The men met on the corner of Hudson and Myrtle avenues early Sunday morning and quarreled. Kenny drew a revolver and shot Petty in the foot.

INSANE AFTER VACCINATION.

Garrity Attributes His Wife's Trouble to the Virus.

Committed for Examination in the Morrisania Court.

Mrs. Catherine Garrity, wife of William J. Garrity, a carpenter, living at 915 Forest avenue, was committed to the care of the Commissioners of Charities and Corrections in the Morrisania Court this morning for examination as to her sanity.

Three weeks ago Mrs. Garrity was vaccinated by a Health Board physician. When the virus began to take effect Mrs. Garrity suffered considerable pain, which increased in intensity as the days went by. Her arm was so inflamed and swollen that she had no use of it for several days.

Last Monday the inflammation was leaving her arm, and Mrs. Garrity was apparently getting better. It was noted by her husband, however, that as the pain decreased his wife began to act strangely. She showed up her arms and about in an incoherent way, as if in fear of being harmed. She attempted at one time to throw herself out of the window.

Mr. Garrity said that his wife had never before displayed any symptoms of insanity, but that, on the contrary, she had possessed a strong mind. He thinks his wife's present condition is due to the effects of vaccination.

Yesterday, during the absence of her husband, Mrs. Garrity became very violent. She threw up her arms and about in an incoherent way, as if in fear of being harmed. She attempted at one time to throw herself out of the window.

Mr. Garrity said that his wife had never before displayed any symptoms of insanity, but that, on the contrary, she had possessed a strong mind. He thinks his wife's present condition is due to the effects of vaccination.

DECLARED FLYNN INSANE.

Man Who Sned a Railroad Taken Before a Jury.

John T. Flynn, forty-five years old, a Flatbush Insane Asylum patient, was taken to the City Court, Brooklyn, this morning, where an application was made for the appointment of a committee of his person and property. Flynn has no property to speak of, but may realize something from his suit against the Brooklyn City Railroad for damages for injuries alleged to have been sustained on July 7 last, when he was struck by a trolley car. It is claimed that he has been totally blind and insane from his injuries.

When one juror asked Flynn how old he was, he replied: "I was born last night at 12 o'clock. I'm a babe. I am."

After Flynn had been owned all the city parks and a church in Lafayette avenue, the jury decided that he was insane without leaving their seats.

A committee will be appointed later. Flynn was formerly a trackman.

Held Up a Night Watchman.

John Walsh, a tinsmith, twenty-five years old, of 32 Sumner street, was held for trial in default of $1,000 bail by Justice Koch in the Essex Street Police Court today. Walsh might be held up Michael Finley, a night watchman, of 44 Jackson street, in front of 13 Jackson street, and robbed him of his silver watch. Police Officer O'Brien, of the better street station, saw the crime, and caught him with the watch in his possession.

ATTACHED FOR $500,000.

General Electric Proceeds Against the Fort Wayne Company.

Agent Adams Says the Property Has Been Transferred.

An attachment for $500,000 against the Fort Wayne Electric Company, of Fort Wayne, Ind., was filed in the County Clerk's office today.

The attachment is in favor of the General Electric Company, of this city, and is said to be for money loaned between 1882 and 1884.

Mr. Thatcher, of the law firm of Simpson, Thatcher & Barnum, 10 Wall street, attorneys for the General Electric Company, has gone to Fort Wayne to make an inquiry into the affairs of the Fort Wayne Electric Company in the interest of his clients.

President Coffin was not in his office yesterday. There are many other officers of the General Electric Company in who would talk about the suit attachment now in the hands of the Sheriff.

H. C. Adams, Eastern agent for the Fort Wayne Electric Company, who has an office in the Edison Building, at 44 Broad street, when seen today, said that he had heard something concerning the attachment, but declared that he knew nothing of the business transacted between his Company and the General Electric.

Then he made the statement that the Fort Wayne Electric Company was not now in existence.

All the property of the old Company has been transferred to the Fort Wayne Electric Corporation, of Indiana," said he, "and the only property concerned in the action in this State is the office furniture here, which is valued at $250."

Mr. Adams said he didn't know when the old Company died, and when the new one was born, nor did he know, he said, when the property was transferred. It might have been a week or longer.

All the business was transacted at the home office, he said. The branch office here was only used for sales purposes. The main office of the General Electric Company is in Schenectady, N. Y.

SHOT BY A CHICAGO THIEF.

Schneberger Fatally Wounded in a Scuffle.

(By Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, June 8.—James Schneberger, a butcher, was shot and fatally wounded by an unknown thief last night. Schneberger was attempting to detain the thief in his butcher shop until the police could be summoned, when the man suddenly broke away from him and, in the scuffle which followed, placed a revolver against his abdomen and fired. The thief made his escape.
